

CALEB DINGER MUSIC STUDIO

Piano

Caleb teaches students how to read music through learning well known folk songs from the very beginning using the Piano Pronto series. He also teaches students how to play songs they love from reading chord charts. Caleb also teaches students how to play their favorite songs by ear.

Voice

Caleb has extensive vocal training in the Blaylock Vocal Method, helping students develop strong, healthy singing habits. He has many years of experience as a University vocal accompanist and as a music director in musical theatre, helping students grow as performers and communicators.

Guitar

Caleb teaches students how to be versatile guitar players, from learning how to read sheet music and guitar tabs, to playing their favorite rock or country songs by ear.

About the Teacher

Caleb is an encouraging and experienced instructor with a Masters in Music Education from Boston University and over 10 years of teaching private lessons in piano, voice, and guitar. He enlisted in the US Navy in 2022 and is the Keyboardist for Navy Band Northeast, stationed in Newport, Rhode Island. Prior to joining the Navy, Caleb was an elementary music and middle school choir teacher in Nashville, TN. What he enjoys most about teaching is helping students find their own unique voice.
